Indian Society of Engineering Geology (ISEG) has been successfully conducting the Geotechnical Orientation Program (GOP) in every year. The GOP is specially designed for the young professionals engaged in Engineering Geology, Design & Geotechnical Engineering works related to Civil Engineering, Mining and other infrastructure projects. The programme provides an insight to the budding technocrats about the best industry practices being adopted to mitigate geotechnical challenges in the industries. Keeping in view the present industry requirements, the programme are designed in such a way that the participants can have a direct interaction with the experienced professionals of the field, which will help them in shaping up their professional career in future.

It gives us immense pleasure to inform that this year also ISEG in association with ISEG Delhi NCR Chapter is organizing GOP-2017 on 15th -16th June, 2017 at Hotel "Vibe The Lalit", Faridabad. The details of the programme including course content, course fee, mode of payment etc. are provided in the enclosed brochure.

Glimpse of the sub-themes to be covered in the programme:

- Challenges and remedies in surface & subsurface excavations.
- Slope stability issues in infrastructure projects.
- Field work & geological & geotechnical data collection
- Geological data processing and interpretation for use in design.

Target Participants – Professionals from Geology, Geophysics, Civil, Mining and Geotechnical background engaged in infrastructure projects having ≤10 years of experience. Students may also apply.

Programme Fee - Rs 10,000/- per participant (including programme kit and refreshments).
