

Imran Sayeed

Imran Sayeed has over 27 years experience of engineering geology & geotechniques and is presently positioned as Chief (Geology) in NHPC. He has many publications in seminars/conferences/journals and has been a faculty in various training programs held in NCR. He has also been associated with organization of seminars, workshops and training programs in engineering geology.

He was awarded readers choice award and a gold medal for his paper "Monitoring safe performance of India's Chamera Dam by Hydro Review Worldwide USA. Shri Sayeed is life member of ISEG, ISRMTT and a Fellow of Geological Society of India. Besides he is also member of IAEG and Geological Society of America.

Imran Sayeed is 1981 batch M.Sc. (Geology) from Aligarh Muslim University. He also has a P.G. Diploma in Hydrogeology and M. Phil with dissertation on 'Geo-engineering problems in tunneling through Panjal Volcanics, J&K' from the same institution.